Update on Fuel Oil Orderbook Prices

We are pleased to inform you that post resolving some technical issues, our market makers will resume firm pricing for S380 and RDM3.5 contracts on our Orderbook on 19th August 2019 (Monday).

The availability of prices on our Exchange Orderbook are determined by our market participants.

Should there only be indicative pricing or no prices on our Orderbook, interested participants who will still like to trade have the option to offer prices through our Request for Quotation (RFQ) functionality for other market participants to respond.

If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact our team at +65 6206 9828 or email us at marketops@eexasia.com.

Thank you for your continued support.
