The Brazil to Far East Capesize market showed signs of life today as trading levels showed solid gains. While most owners are now said to be asking in $19's for the C3 business, charterer levels are rising yet some say not yet chasing. With first half September loading windows being now the main show, there remains ample tonnage with eta for the end of August period.

Iron ore futures recovered from yesterday's blip to surge above $116 as investors weighed resilient steel demand in China against flows from top shippers. China's fiscal stimulus continues to drive demand and strong steel production is outweighing rising iron ore exports, according to Australia & New Zealand Banking Group Ltd.
